

BLAZETM

OUTDOOR KITCHEN CO.

Born Out of Obsession

They’re more than outdoor kitchens. They are the result of hundreds of hours of meticulous research and an unyielding drive to enhance your outdoor cooking experience. Each of our five new kitchen configurations consists of easy-to-assemble modules and combines the quality and efficiency of a bestselling Blaze grill with a premium, ultra-luxury pre-made structure. It’s everything you’d expect from the Blaze brand—and a little more for good measure.

Our Story

No matter the time of day, if we're awake, we're outside. That means sunrise to sunset and everything in between, our natural environment is in the backyard—and we know it's yours too. It's why our latest collection of outdoor kitchen islands, created in collaboration with Urban Bonfire, honors that commitment with names associated with the daily cycle of sunlight.
